INTRODUC- TION

INTRODUCTION

The primary aim of the valueable network catalogue is to witness the effort and commitment of numerous organizations working in the hospitality industry to adopt a socially responsible philosophy in their business management.

This catalogue provides a list of the pioneering for-profit enterprises that decided that this could be one of the ways to increase the competitiveness of their business and change our society into a better world.

Such effort and commitment are witnessed by their engagement in enrolling people with intellectual disabilities, either as interns or employees, aware that these workers can provide a value-added in their business, profit-oriented activities.

THE TRADE- MARK

The trademark "VALUEABLE, handing opportunities" (hereinafter the Trademark) is aimed at all organisations (accommodation and catering services), which: comply with the national legislation on the employment of people with disabilities, are committed to including people with intellectual disabilities within their workforce by providing internships and/or recruiting them and comply with the rules provided by the annexed Code of Conduct.

The Trademark is linked to the project "On my own at work" (OMO) co-funded by the European Commission, under the Erasmus Plus Program¹, and led by Associazione Italiana Persone Down (AIPD), which was aimed at promoting employment of people with intellectual disabilities through the spread of targeted placements in the hospitality industry.

The Trademark can be used in three variations (same shape, different colours) based on the level of commitment of the signing organisation:

BRONZE

the bronze version certifies specific conditions and actions aimed at non-discriminating and including in addition to the provision of internships to people with intellectual disabilities;

SILVER

the silver version requires a further (in addition to non-discriminating and providing internships) engagement by the company, that is the fixed term (min 3 months) or permanent employment of at least one worker with intellectual disabilities;

GOLDEN

the golden version is granted to those employers who recruit at least one worker with intellectual disabilities and act as ambassadors of the Trademark.

RIGHTS OF THE VALUEABLE MEMBERS

VALUEABLE MEMBERS ARE ENTITLED TO:

- use the Trademark in their own communication and promotion materials;
- be included in the Valueable communication initiatives and tools (social media, website, events);
- get access to dedicated tools and information, i.e. the "On my own...at work" app, video tutorials, documents, etc. aimed at facilitating job inclusion of people with intellectual disabilities;
- be trained through online resources about issues and practices related to people with intellectual disabilities at work;
- get a help desk support by the guaranteeing agency, acknowledged by AIPD.

SUPPORT INCLUDES, BUT IS NOT LIMITED TO:

- hands-on assistance and advice on how to put the company commitments into practice;
- quick response to internship opportunities to support the company in the recruiting process of a person with intellectual disabilities;
- advice on how to adapt the work environment to the needs of people with intellectual disabilities;
- advice on how to solve possible specific and contingent issues;
- support of an external tutor from the agency mentioned above, which cooperates with and provides support to the company along the entire internship process, from internship opportunity advertising until internship end.

DUTIES OF THE DUTIES OF THE USERS

Organisations that want to use the Trademark have to:

get a guaranteeing agency;

use the Trademark according to the user manual;

comply with the commitments included in the certificate;

give evidence of the fulfilment of their commitments.

PROCEDURE TO GET THE TRADEMARK

The application to the use of the Trademark is submitted by each organisation to AIPD as follows:
